

With Love... from the age
of reason

Synopsis

Margaret leads her high powered job with an iron hand. On her 40th birthday, a retired lawyer starts delivering her a series of packages containing letters written by a little girl: this little girl was Margaret. She wrote the letters when she was 7 years old, the age of reason. Although reluctant at first to read the letters and stir up these deeply buried memories, Margaret ends up getting hooked....and suddenly everything she was ever certain about gets turned upside down.
