Founded in 1949 by the French state, Unifrance is an association that assures the promotion of French films abroad. With the ongoing support of its 680 members, including French film producers, directors, actors, talent agents, and sales agents, Unifrance works to maximize French cinema’s cultural impact and enhance its economic growth abroad.

Unifrance organizes its own events dedicated to French cinema, focusing on selections of films and artistic delegations traveling to promote their work abroad. Unifrance supports French films at the major international film festivals. Unifrance explores new territories with commercial potential and consolidates new markets by working closely with its partners abroad, and by accompanying the theatrical release of French films, among other activities.

Margaret Menegoz has been Unifrance’s President since June 2003. She was unanimously re-elected to this position in 2006 for another two years.

Unifrance organizes festivals dedicated to French films in every continent. Most of these events are open to the general public. They allow the presentation of selected films, accompanied by artistic delegations, and provide opportunities for extensive media exposure. Unifrance events provide young talent with an international platform and the possibility of meeting local counterparts.
In 2008 Unifrance will organize following events:

- Rendez-Vous with French Cinema in Paris (January)
- Rendez-Vous with French Cinema in India (January)
- Rendez-Vous With French Cinema Today in New York, USA (February, March)
- French Film Festival in Japan, Tokyo-Osaka (March)
- French Film Day at Filmart, Hong Kong (March)
- Budapest French Film Festival, Hungary (April)
- French Film Panorama in China (April)
- French-Spanish Film Meetings, Madrid (June)
- Panorama of French cinema in Vietnam, Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City (October)
- French – Mexican Film Festival, Mexico City (November)
- Franco-German Film Meetings, Hamburg (November)
- French Film Festival in Russia (December)
- On Set with French Cinema (Several times a year)

Unifrance is also present at the major festivals: Cannes, Berlin, Venice, Rome, Toronto, San Sebastian, Locarno, Rotterdam, Pusan, Karlovy Vary, etc. and at the major international film markets. Unifrance therefore works in close collaboration with sales agents at the AFM in Los Angeles, the EFM in Berlin, Filmart in Hong Kong, and the Film Market at Cannes.

Eden Log
A man wakes up deep inside a cave. Suffering amnesia, he has no recollection of how he came to be here nor of what happened to the man whose body he finds beside him. Tailed by a mysterious creature, he has no other choice but to continue through this strange and fantastic world.

Enclosed, Tolbiac has no other option to reach the surface than to use REZO ZERO, secret observing cells in this cemetery-like abandoned mine. He embarks upon this journey guided by the roots of a plant, leading the way and the main subject of attention of the REZO.

This is the story of the rise of a forgotten man, sometimes informed by the archives of abandoned laboratories, which punctuate this subterranean network and at other times by his own strangely amplified instinct. During his search for the surface, Tolbiac must uncover the secret of what once lived in this network; but has this “mystery” truly left?

La Chambre des morts
Melody’s Smile
In the dead of night, in the middle of an isolated wind farm, two out-of-work computer programmers run a man over, killing him. By his body, they find a bag stuffed with cash. Bank robber? Drug dealer? Who cares? Two million euros staring you in the face. No witnesses. What would you do? Call the cops or cash in on your good luck? Vigo and Sylvain don’t take long to make up their minds.
The following day, a blind girl is found dead in a warehouse near the scene of the accident. What if the money was destined to pay her ransom? Did the killer see the hit-and-run drivers?
Then another girl is kidnapped, and worse, she’s a diabetic. The clock is ticking. The police in the provincial town of Dunkerque start to panic. They are ill equipped to deal with such crimes. Helped by her attentive colleague Norman, rooky cop Lucie embarks on her first major investigation.

Coach 14 is a brand-new, French world sales agency, with headquarters in Paris, and another office in Barcelona.

Here at Coach14, we bring together all the experience that our young management team gained as executives in a number of European film businesses in the areas of production, distribution and international sales. We are well versed in the specificities of the sector, with regard to both creative and economic aspects. Our individual careers have enabled us familiarise ourselves with the special characteristics of the filmmaking industry in the different countries in which we work.

Up until now the Executive Vice President of the Spanish production company Iris Star, and CEO of the distribution company, Stardis Pictures, Jaume Domenech now goes on to take up the post of Managing Director of Coach 14, assuming the responsibility for sales in Latin America and Asia. With a long professional career in French international sales companies (Studio Canal, TVOR, Funny Balloons, etc.), Pape Boye will be in charge of the Paris office, and will be responsible for sales in Europe, the United States, Japan and South Korea.

Our main objective is to manage world sales of independent productions with the maximum commitment. Our line-up will comprise well selected titles, with the relevant international trajectory: products of undisputed quality aimed at wide audiences.

In order to draw up our initial catalogue, we have spent many months in contact with producers, and creators in different countries. In fact, this research work and our direct involvement with each project is one of the main characteristics of Coach14, along with a totally flexible style of negotiation that is adapted to each distributor, so that both distributors and producers, and ourselves, can all make maximum benefit from our films.

L’Invité/The Dinner Guest

The Dinner Guest started out as a hugely successful stage-play. Adapted for the screen by Laurent Bouhnik, whose darker features were a departure from his two breakout comedy shorts. Unemployed for three years, Gérard has landed a job in Indonesia. To start off on the right foot with his “team leader”, Gérard invites him to dinner. Considering his wife’s lack of culinary talent, that may not be the brightest idea he ever had. Their neighbor, Alexandre, a PR whiz, is willing to help, as long as Gérard and Colette are prepared to accept changes in their habits and surroundings...

Le Dernier Gang/Masked Mobsters

From small time hoodlums in the tough Belleville neighborhood to headline-grabbing robbers of the swankiest banks in Paris, for Simon and his gang, the only way was up. Capable of emptying a series of vaults from under the noses of the police, who can only marvel at the gang’s quiet audacity, how long will this bunch of inseparable friends be able to avoid a bloody shootout, stand the boredom of exile in the sun, and keep romance in their lives while still on the run? Freely adapted from the true story of the “Gang des Postiches”...

Les Hauts Murs/ Behind the Walls

France, 1930s. 14-year-old orphan Yves Tréguier’s vision of the world is that of the reform schools where he is raised in conditions worthy of a penal colony. As soon as he arrives in one of these “educational homes”, always surrounded by high walls, Yves, the king of the runaways and eternal dreamer, starts working out how to escape to New York where his fantasy life waits for him. Based on the autobiography of Auguste Le Breton, the French crime writer whose books inspired some of the greatest noir classics, such as Rififi, Fever Heat and The Sicilian Clan, Les Hauts Murs tells the moving story of the difficult childhood of a cult author, who gave criminals’ slang a special place in French literature.

FUTURIKON was founded in 1996, by Philippe Delarue, CEO and executive producer. Based in Paris and London, it specializes in the production and distribution of animation programs, feature films and documentaries. The company aims at producing innovative, entertaining and enlightening shows, inspired by the creative minds of French and European writers and artists. But Futurikon is also open to international influence, exploiting and developing the creative synergies of cinema, television, multimedia, music and publishing, wherever they may be found. Futurikon produces and distributes internationally Dragon Hunters, a family feature film in 3D in animation, with the voice of Forest Whitaker.

Chasseurs de dragons
Dragon Hunters

Zoe is a little girl who believes in fairy tales. Not because she is naive, but because she likes fairy tales. So in order to help her uncle Lord Arnold get rid of a terrible dragon, Zoe decides she has to find some heroes. And when she meets Gwizdo and Lian-Chu – a couple of two-bit, fly-by-night dragon hunters – well what the heck, she decides that she’s going to believe in them anyway!

Directors: Arthur Qwak, Guillaume Ivernel
Voice: Forest Whitaker
Producer: Futurikon, in coproduction with Trixter, LuxAnimation, Mac Guff Ligne, France 3 Cinéma and RTL TVI.
Runtime: 80’

Onoma

Production and International sales company created in September 2003

ONOMA is a co-production and international sales company, for both feature films and documentaries, set up by Pascal Diot who has been working in the film industry for over 25 years.

ONOMA is actively involved in international co-productions, providing international financing to independent producers, in worldwide sales of high quality French and foreign films and documentaries and in acquisition for both international and domestic sales. Our main strategy is to develop a close and long term relationship with producers and directors from all over the world which shall allow a regular and constant flow of films with a real international potential. We are thus co-producing between 3 to 5 feature films and between 3 to 7 documentaries per year.

Modern Love
The Paris cityscape, musical numbers and a talented ensemble cast feature in Modern Love, a musical romantic comedy that charts the often-haphazard road to love. Eric, the screenwriter of a hit romantic comedy, can’t seem to get love right in real life. He’s still stuck on his mercurial ex and can’t commit to his current girlfriend. Meanwhile Elsa keeps bumping into Eric, but is so absorbed in her ill-fated fling with the predominantly gay Jerome that she barely notices him. Their stories unfold in parallel with Eric’s bigscreen tale of nearly-missed romance between debonair magazine director Vincent, and Marianne, a free-thinking artist who’s determined to resist his charms.

Screenings

L’Homme qui Marche
The Walking Man
Paris, the mid ‘70s. A photographer meets an emaciated and tenebrous man named Viktor Atemian, a Russian emigrant. This is the story of how he suddenly becomes a writer and meets with success before hitting on hard times and ending up on the street. A film about the passing of time, renunciation, and plunging into the void. The end is particularly touching and violent as he dies of hunger in front of the well known Saint-Germain des Prés café Les Deux Magots.

Où est la main de l’homme sans tête/The Hand of the Headless Man
Diving champion Eva emerges from a 15-day coma. Her demanding father is determined she should start training again straight away. But something has changed since the accident. Her brother has disappeared, her cat is nowhere to be seen, and she’s haunted by the vision of sinister man, a man with an amputated hand. Is Eva slipping into madness, or moving inexorably closer to a terrible truth?

Director: Guillaume Malandrin
Cast: Cécile de France, Ulrich Tukur
Producer: La Parti Production, Liaison Cinematographique and Granel Film
Runtime: 160'

L’Aimée
Arnaud Desplechin films his father who has just sold the grand family home. The move offer an opportunity to go through drawers, look through old photographs and read old letters. It’s also an opportunity for the father to talk about his own mother, “Thérèse”, who dies when he was 18 months old. A mother of whom he has retained no memories, but whom he nonetheless appears to know so well.

Le Renard et l’enfant
The Fox and the Child

The Fox and the Child recounts the story of a magical, life-changing encounter between a wild fox and a young girl. Through Luc Jacquet’s camera, the audience will become the fox: will enter its skin, share its senses, experience the dangers it faces, perceive the images and sounds that surround it. At the same time, The Fox and the Child will act as a mirror, enabling us to re-examine our relationship with the natural world while experiencing it anew, heightened and magical through the enchanted eyes of one innocent, awe-struck heroine. Where matchless wildlife documentary meets fiction, a fabulous, timeless universal tale emerges.

Director: Luc Jacquet
Cast: Bertille Noël-Bruneau, Voice: Isabelle Carré
Producer: Bonne Pioche Productions
Runtime: 92’
