Screenings

I'M HAPPY THAT MY MOTHER IS ALIVE

Director: Claude Miller, Nathan Miller

Cast: Vincent Rottiers, Sophie Cattani, Christine Citti

Producers: Jean-Louis Livi, Jacques Audiard

Our identities are clothes the shapes of which were designed by our childhood. Between the age of 7 and 20, Thomas was looking for Julie, his birth mother. Unknown to his adoptive parents he would find this woman who had abandoned him at 4 years and start a "parallel life" with her. But as the proverb goes: "You shouldn't bet on two winning horses..." (Approximate rendering of the French proverb : Qui a deux maisons perd la raison).

FASHION VICTIM

Director: Gérard Jugnot

Producers: Les films Manuel Munz, Novo Arturo Films, PC
Flamenco Films, France 2 Cinéma, France 3 Cinéma, EuropaCorp

Paris 1577. King Henri III gives famous couturier Pic Saint Loup a crucial diplomatic mission. He must go to Spain to make a magnificent gown for the wedding of the King's nephew to the daughter of a Spanish noble. The trouble is that the real creative brain behind Saint Loup's outfit is his Moorish assistant, while his perfumer is a Marano Jew and his hairdresser is out, loud and very proud. And Catholic Spain, in the grip of the Inquisition, is no place for Arabs, Jews and homosexuals (Saint Loup is anything but heterosexual). To make matters worse, his secretary is an undercover Protestant plotting revenge for the St. Bartholomew's Day massacre and the father of the bride turns out to be the Chief Inquisitor of Cordoba...

THE WHISTLER

Director: Philippe Lefebvre

Cast: François Berléand, Thierry Lhermitte, Virginie Efira

Producers: Les Productions du Trésor, EuropaCorp, M6 Films

Cannes, the French Riviera. Armand Teillard is happy with life—a busy store downtown, a delightful girlfriend, a magnificent record collection and lunch every day at Sofia and Martial's family restaurant with a perfect sea view. So when Sofia tells Armand that Zapetti, a property developer with mafia connections, is putting the squeeze on her to sell up, he is horrified. Armand is an easy-going guy, but when he gets mad... Actually, Armand never gets mad. He leaves that to his twin brother, Maurice The Whistler. When Maurice rides into town in his Aston Martin and designer suit, Zapetti, his mob and the corrupt local politicians are in trouble. But what if, behind the dyed hair and tinted contact lenses, Maurice and Armand are one and the same guy? Is Cannes big enough for the both of them?

Entre Chien Et Loup

"To be a Baron, you have to move the least possible. Because each human is given an amount of step credit, and every step you take uses it up. That's what sets us apart from the rest of the world: we, the Barons, know this fact from the start."

Mounir, my best friend, he wants us to stay Barons forever.

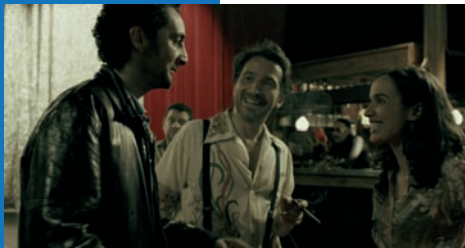

But that doesn't fit with my plan!

My kick is to make people laugh. But my dad thinks «actor » is no job, not like bus driver, a real job with the monthly salary.

I see you start to get it...

The thing is, to succeed, you need to leave the neighbourhood, but you can't just walk away from it: you have to escape. And to escape, you have to make a run for it, and if you run, you're not a Baron anymore.

By the way, my name is Hassan !

MALE DOMINATION

Director: Patric Jean
Producer: Elzévir Films
Documentary

A man murders 14 women, because they've taken the place of men in society. Through this extreme case the narrator subjectively sets out in search of what defines patriarchy in the Western world. What enables, organizes or justifies injustice and violence against women. It takes us through different countries, sketching the outline of a partially questioned male domination in which man nevertheless struggles to find his rightful place.
