Documentary – France – 2013 – 13'14"

DCP - 16/9 HD – Color/Black and white – Stereo

Based on interviews, an imaginary confession of singer Maria Callas with comments from Italian directors Luchino Visconti and Pier Paolo Pasolini.

Told only in still pictures with a peculiar work on the sound, the film was shot in New York City and Turkey, the pictures taken there being extensively reworked in postproduction. The documentary also has archives provided by the Teatro alla Scala (Milan/Italy) and the Mario Tursi Archive.
