Photographs from the movie

Born in the south of France in 1969 Etienne Faure begins to realize several short films awarded in many festivals: "The Invisible Lyrics" with Guillaume Depardieu, Thomas Langmann, Olivier Martinez... « All The Boys » with Jean-Claude Brial, Elodie Bouchez and Thomas Langmann , "the End of the Night" with Sebastien Roch and Bambou.

He also signed a documentary « Looking for Tadzio » on the young actor of Visconti's movie "Death in Venice".

Then he produced and directed his first feature film « In extremis (To the extrême)» in which we find Sebastien Roch in the lead role alongside Julie Depardieu, Aurélien Wiik, Jean Claude Brial, Christine Boisson. He decides to continue in duality producer / director, and created with Stéphane Gizard Eivissa Productions society and became a member of the French Society of Authors, Directors Producers (ARP).

Two other productions follow: a short film "Prisoner" and "What? Eternity ": documentary about Arthur Rimbaud for television with the participation of Jean-Claude Brial, Dolores Chaplin, Jocelyn Quivrin, Christopher Hampton, Bertrand Delanoe, the singer Raphael ... and produce a short film "Lapis Lazuli" directed by Boris Diéval with Yoann Libéreau.

Then produced and directed « The Illusions » his second feature film starring Aurélien Wiik, Catherine Wilkening, Caroline Guerin, Baptiste Caillaud.

His third feature film Chaos (Desordres) film with Isaach De Bankole, Sonia Rolland and Niels Schneider was presented in France in 2012 and has been participating in many international films festivals.

Bizarre is his fourth feature film. The movie has been shooting entirely in New York in and around Bizarre the famous underground cabaret.

Starting september 2015 he will realize a new feature film River Bank in the north of USA.
