SYNOPSIS

A captivating investigation that takes us on the traces of violent riots having taken place throughout the XIXth and XXth centuries, caused by a rare, fascinating and dangerous film: Fury of the Demon, attributed to French cineaste Georges Méliès.

Through conversations with journalists, filmmakers, historians, experts and psychologists, this new full-length documentary pulls back the veil on the most cursed and disturbing movie ever made.

From mysteries to mysteries, from questioning to questioning, discover the truth about the lost movie that that shakes the film world for over a century.

FABIEN DELAGE

DIRECTOR'S BIOGRAPHY

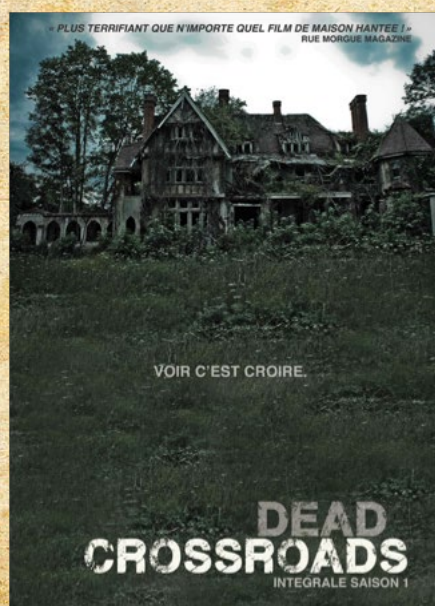

At the same time graphic designer under the name The Wondermaker for cinema and television, journalist for the Canadian magazine Rue Morgue, photographer and filmmaker, Fabien continually tries to improve his style, between urban influences and the imaging of the Horror classics.

After directing the mockumentary series Dead Crossroads, seasons 1 & 2, which the first met a striking success on VOD and DVD, and his documentary Fury of the Demon, Fabien finishes the editing of his full-length Found Footage Horror Film, Cold Ground.
